About Yogi Gupta

YOGI Gupta was born in 1917 at Kanpur, United Provinces, North India, into an aristocratic and well-to-do family. As a youth he studied law, was admitted to the Bar, and practiced before one of the high courts of India. His legal career was dedicated to the service of humanity, but for the fulfillment of his mission on Earth he took to the path of renunciation. After intense penance and mastering nine types of Yoga, with the divine blessings of his Guru (spiritual teacher), he lived the life of a wandering monk, helping people to achieve radiant health and spiritual development.

Yogi Gupta was the founder and president of the Kailash-ananda Mission, situated on Manikoot Hills, Rishikesh, Himalayas, India, surrounded by the Himalayan peaks and on the banks of the holy river Ganges. He continued as its president from its founding in 1952 until His Maha Samadhi in 2011.

The Yoga Health Sanatorium at the Mission in India, had accommodations to admit fifty patients and unlimited accommodations for out-patients. Yogi Gupta was the director in charge of this sanatorium, which was operated by his disciples and followers.

Yogi Gupta developed a great following in the United States of America and other Western countries. His headquarters was in New York City. He was the director of Yogi Gupta New York Center, New York City, where he personally taught the occult and esoteric wisdom of the East and provided personal guidance to the disciples on the Path, besides holding regular lectures and classes in Yoga Postures, Deep Breathings, Relaxation, Meditation and Raja Yoga.

Yogi Gupta is the author of the renowned book, YOGA AND LONG LIFE, a profusely illustrated handbook that presents all the important principles of Hatha Yoga, the Science of Living, practiced and perfected in India throughout the centuries. It has thirty-five full page illustrations of the author, including Postures for Beginners, Main Postures of Yoga, and Postures for Advanced Students.

Yogi Gupta is also the author of YOGA AND YOGIC POWERS, the first book of its kind ever written on Yoga that provides such penetrating insight into the thinking, life and powers of the Hindu Yogis. It also tells the readers unknown facts about themselves which they must know, if they wish to remedy the cause of their physical, mental and emotional problems. The book is so profusely illustrated with examples, experiences and guidance from the author's own life, that the reader will not only find it a deeply fascinating study of the mind and its powers, but also a warm inspiring story of one of the great Yogis of India, who taught in the United States from 1954 to 2009.

Preface

The essence of Satsang is association with the Self-Realized Saint, or knower of Satya, or Truth. From 1954 to 2009, Yogi Gupta conducted Holy Satsang for His disciples and students during His many trips to America. Prayers For Holy Satsang is modeled on Satsang as Yogi Gupta conducted it, and, for the sincere devotee, contains the necessary ingredients to invoke the Spiritual Presence of the Holy Man, Saint or Guru, and to Praise the Lord through Kirtan and Aaratee. Then the devotee receives the Divine Blessings of Holy Satsang.

Yogi Gupta taught that Satsang is the easiest means of Salvation in the Kali Yuga, or Iron Age, which is our current Epoch, when Dharma, or Righteousness, envisioned as a cow, is standing on only one leg, and is on the verge of collapse. In the Kali Yuga, the intense and difficult tapasya enjoined by Scriptures for Salvation in the earlier Epochs becomes next to impossible for the ordinary person, so the Lord mercifully lowers the standard for Self-Realization. In the Kali Yuga, Bhakti Yoga, as exemplified by regular attendance at Holy Satsang, is itself sufficient not only to neutralize many of the negative astrological influences (karmas) that beset the individual, but also to achieve Moksha – Salvation. In this way, one can say that the Kali Yuga is the best of Ages because it is the time when Self-Realization is easiest to achieve for the devotee.

We offer food as Havan Samagri to the Lord, who is situated in our spiritual heart. In the Havan Kund the fire of the solar plexus, ignited
by the Divine Flame of the Manipura Chakra.

Hay Sarva Shakti Sampanna Prabhoo
Kar Bandh Binaya Kum Kartay Hain
Seva May Vastu Tumharee Hee
Aarpan Ker Bhojan Kartay Hain
Indriya Chitta Issay Bana Kar
Sub Parahit Hee Maylag Jaway
Satchitanand Dow Shakti Hamey
Jee Say Jeevan Ka Phal Paway

Oh Almighty Lord, I pray unto Thee with folded hands in humility.

The food which is Thy Manifestation and belongs to Thee,
I humbly offer unto Thyself before I do eat.

May this nourish and strengthen my senses, mind and intellect

to enable them all to serve mankind, God in man.

Oh blissful Lord, bless me with courage and strength to enable me to fulfill the goal of human birth. Amen.
